

Austin Oaks
Visions and Values Workshop
January 12, 2016

All residents of the neighborhoods surrounding Austin Oaks are invited to attend the Vision and Values Workshop, to learn more about the upcoming charrette and to provide your input on what you would like to see at that site. Results of this workshop (and the one held on December 16th) will provide direction to the charrette, so this is an important time to express your views.

Below is an outline of the workshop, to be held:

January 12th, 11:30 AM to 1:30 PM

Austin Board of Realtors, Auditorium A
4800 Spicewood Springs Road.

Registration/Arrival

Arrival Activity: Dot Exercise - Where do you Live, Work, Play, Shop?

As attendees are walking in, they will have the opportunity to place dots on map marking the places where they live, work, play, and shop.

Meeting Agenda (total meeting time about 2 hours)

1. Welcome (Ben Luckens)
  - Meeting Purpose
  - How did we get here?
  - What has been happening?
  - Introduction of Working Group
  - Introduction of Charrette Team from Farr Associates and TBG
  - Charrette Schedule
2. What is a Charrette? (Kareeshma Ali, Farr Associates)
3. Town Planning (Doug Farr, Farr Associates)
4. Existing Site Conditions (Sean Compton, TBG and Doug Farr)
5. Facilitated tabletop discussions with maps (Doug and Sean)
  - Objectives and Strategies Exercise
    - What do you envision?
    - How do you make it happen?
  - Report back on tabletop discussions
6. Next steps
  - Finalizing the Objectives and Strategies
  - Charrette 1/25-1/29- Congregation Agudas Achim Social Hall, Dell Jewish Community Campus, 7300 Hart Lane
  - Charrette schedule